Good for the Child.

The ailments of childhood need careful attention and wise treatment. Some people think "anything is good enough for a child, and there isn't much the matter with it anyhow." Ed. Roundabout:
It is with a sad heart that I hasten to inform you of the death of my wife, Polly Vocum. Yes, your dear aunt is no more. Her lunacy organ became deranged about the time she became correspondent for the press. Have you heard anything from the Phelps brothers? Poor boys. Now that I'm bereaved in the loss of Polly would you be kind enough to hunt up poor David Falmage Phelps or George Bogs Phelps and tell them to come home and live with their uncle Zeke. The last news was that Dupont had them in his paper mill chewing rags to make paper. From bereaved uncle, ZEKE VOCUM.

Acted like a Charm.

My little daughter all her life has been, in delicate health. Her blood seemed to be impoverished. She has taken various preparations of Iron, cod-liver oil, and tonics of many kinds, which were prescribed by the best physicians, and while she was benefited, yet it was only temporary. A member of my congregation who had tried it, recommended S. S. S. For about a year she has had an indolent but stubborn sore behind her ears. After she had taken Swift's Specific for a short time the sores grew worse and began to discharge. This I regarded as favorable. In a very short time her ears grew better, and to-day is entirely well. Her appetite is splendid and regular; she is full of life and cheerfulness. The change is evident to the most casual observer. I ascribe it all, under the blessing of God, to SWIFT'S Specific. In view of what it has done for me and mine, I can most confidently and sincerely recommend it to all who need such a remedy. Let the suffering give it a fair trial, and it will bring hope, health and happiness into every home.

Filled Rev. R. H. Kinnard's pulpit on last Sunday night. The sermon was a remarkably earnest and eloquent presentation of the truth, and the whole congregation were greatly pleased with the doctor and his sermon, and unite with us in the hope that this good man may come to see them often. Doctor Lewis' reputation as a preacher always secures him a good congregation.—Midway Clipper.

"Crosses Man in Alabama."

"De crosses man in Alabama lives dar," said the driver as we approached a wayside home, near Selma, Ala., to ask accommodations for the night. At supper, and after it, "mine host" serowled at every one, found fault with every thing earthly, and I was wondering if he would not growl if the heavenly halo didn't fit him, when incidental mention being made of the comet of 1882, he said: "I didn't like its form, its tail should have been fan shaped!"

But, next morning, he appeared half-offended at our offering to pay for his hospitality! My companion, however, made him accept as a present a sample from his case of goods. Six weeks later, I drew up at the same house. The planter stepped lightly from the porch, and greeted me cordially. I could scarcely believe that this clear complexion, bright-eyed, animated fellow, and the morose being of a few weeks back, were the same. He inquired after my companion of the former visit and regretted that he was not with me. "Yes," said his wife, "we are both much indebted to him." "How?" I asked, in surprise. "For this wonderful change in my husband. Your friend, when leaving, handed him a bottle of Warner's safe cure. He took it, and two other bottles, and now—" "And now," he broke in, "from an ill-feeling, growling old bear, I am healthy and so cheerful my wife declares she has fallen in love with me again!"

It has made over again a thousand love matches, and keeps sweet the tempers of the family circle everywhere.—Copyright. Used by permission of American Rural Home. Aug. 22-9t

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 5, 1885.

The engine for the pumping station of the water works arrived Monday and is being put up as rapidly as possible. The pipe has been laid up the river bank at the foot of Ann street and the whole system of pipes is now connected and ready to receive the water which is thought will be pumped into them by the middle of the month.

Two games of base ball were played at Capital Park on Monday and Tuesday afternoons, between the Athletics, of this city, and the Black Stockings, of Louisville, two colored clubs. By the aid of a Louisville umpire Monday afternoon the Louisville team succeeded in putting it on our home boys by a score of 21 to 12, but Tuesday afternoon the tables were turned and the Frankfort club won by a score of 20 to 16.

The fire hydrant, which was set into the bank at the corner of Cross and Main streets, is gradually being buried out of sight by the sliding of the earth upon it. With it at the bottom of a hole five or six feet deep, at the edge of a narrow sidewalk, at a point where a coal oil lamp gives about as much light as a tallow dip for a short time and then goes out altogether, the probabilities are very strong that some unwary pedestrian will meet with a serious accident there some dark night and the city have a damage suit in consequence.

The ice house of Mr. John C. Frazier, near Woodlake, was destroyed by fire one morning last week. A little negro boy sent there for ice had gotten hold of some parlor matches and was so delighted with the popping noise they made when ignited that he was amusing himself lighting them, when he dropped one in the straw which covered the ice, and it flashed up like a match of powder and the whole interior of the building was in flames in an instant. The grass in the vicinity, which was very dry, took fire and burnt for a considerable distance around, and had it not been that the wind was blowing in an opposite direction, the dwelling house, which is one of the handsomest frame residences in that section, would have been destroyed also.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Times, writing under date of September 2, 1885, tells his paper that Capt. D. A. Murphy, the present Superintendent of our Public Building, "knows nothing of the building business," but that "Mr. Henry Olmsted, his clerk, is an architect and does the work for him." It is true that Mr. Olmsted is an amateur architect, having studied architecture for twelve months in Cincinnati. But Mr. Olmsted was not appointed clerk until October 27th, 1884, and consequently, the Frankfort building was more than half completed before he had seen it. Mr. Olmsted has nothing, and has had nothing, to do with the plans or specifications, as they are carefully prepared in Washington, D. C. Mr. James C. Bradley, of Frankfort, is the foreman of the building, and is a practical mechanic and builder; and he has had immediate charge of the plans and of the workmen on the building for two years, acting always under the authority of the Superintendent. It would be as unjust to take the plans from Mr. Bradley, the foreman, as it would be to take the books from Mr. Olmsted, the clerk. Capt. Murphy says that Mr. Bradley is his eyes on the building, and that Mr. Olmsted is his ears in the office, and that the Public Building as it now stands will ever refute the silly slander that "he knows nothing of the building business." Mr. Samuel Hannaford, the matchless architect of Cincinnati and Superintendent of the U. S. Custom House there, has twice made an inspection of the Public Building at Frankfort and both times reported officially that the work had been well done.

Capt. D. A. Murphy, Superintendent of the Public Building, has in his possession five autograph letters from Gen. Grant.

Mr. R. Glogower will open a dry goods store on Broadway, in the room at present occupied by Mr. Dority as a shooting gallery, next week.

A large audience attended the minstrel performance of the Barlow, Wilson & Rankin troupe at the Opera House Thursday evening.

The work of putting up the large engine at the pumping station of the Water Company is an exceedingly heavy job and it will be several weeks before it is completed.

The commission of Mr. W. E. Grubbs, recently appointed superintendent of the Government Building in this city, has been held up until the return of the Secretary of the Treasury to Washington City.

The session of the white Public school will begin on Monday. We are glad to be able to state that a higher grade will be taught in the school this year provided there are enough scholars who wish to enter it to justify the board in establishing it. Many pupils of last year had completed the course, and their parents were at a loss to know what to do with them, being unable financially to send them away from home to school, and it is hoped they will take advantage of this class to complete their education as far as possible.

Wm. Woodward, a negro convict sent to the Penitentiary from Warren county, two years ago, was sent up to one of the convict camps in the Mountains, and made his escape during the cold weather of last winter, hid out at night and had his feet so badly frozen that they had to be amputated. His term was out several months ago, when he was arrested at the prison gate and placed in jail here to await trial for making his escape. The matter was brought before Gov. Knott and on Tuesday he issued him a pardon and he was sent to his old home in Bowling Green Wednesday.

Wheat Show.

The wheat show advertised by Commissioner of Agriculture, Col. John F. Davis, came off Wednesday afternoon, and was quite a success, a number of farmers being present. There were forty samples exhibited and all were very fine. Messrs. L. F. Compton, Jas. N. Miles, S. C. Bull and Geo. C. Shaw acted as judges, and made the following awards:

Best sample of white wheat No. 1, premium $15—Jeff. Lewis, of Franklin county. Second best, premium $10—C. W. McQueen, of Franklin county. Four samples shown.

Best sample of Red Wheat, No. 1, premium $15—W. H. Slead, of Shelby county. Second best, premium $10—T. W. Clark, of Shelby county. Twenty-two samples shown.

Best sample of Red Wheat, "long berry," premium $15—R. H. Hoskins, of Louisville. Second best, premium $10—A. J. Cogar, of Woodford county. Fourteen samples shown.

Following is a list of the Exhibitors. White Wheat—Jeff. Lewis and C. W. McQueen, Franklin; John Straughn and J. W. Thomas, Shelby.

Col. Davis, the Commissioner, will purchase fifty bushels of each of the premium varieties for seed to be distributed among the members of the Legislature.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Antioch

Still dry but not so hot; stock water scarce.

Mr. Henry Spaulding's child is improving slowly.

Older making is next in order; then comes sorghum.

Preaching at Antioch to-morrow week by Eld. J. K. P. South.

We are sorry to hear that the sweet-potato crop is a failure in this neighborhood this year.

A rain is now needed to save the grass and turnips, the other crops being past redemption.

Mrs. Chas. Truel has been very sick, and at one time was in a very critical condition, but is now improving.

There was music, sweet music, in the air last Sunday night. Some of our young lady friends were singing at Mr. Owens'.

Mr. Richard Kendall and family, of Winchester, have been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. They returned home last Monday.

Why do not the trustees of the common schools enforce the law in regard to text books. It is their sworn duty to do so and they certainly do not intend to perjure themselves. They should look into the matter.

There was a picnic given at Quarry Springs last Saturday where all seemed to enjoy themselves. We noticed several of Frankfort's belles in the crowd. We hear there will be another one given at the same place next Saturday.

The teachers of the county should remember that next Saturday is the time set for the meeting of the County Association, and we hope that all the teachers and trustees of the county will make it their business to be present. All friends of education are cordially invited.

Bridgeport.

The turnip prospect is gloomy.

Cabbage in this vicinity is almost a failure.

The apple and pear yield is very good.

Owing to the scarcity of trees the peach crop is light.

The farmers have commenced cutting their tobacco.

Tomatoes have been more scarce this season than usual.

A literary society will be organized in this town early in the fall.

C. H. Parent, who has been quite sick recently, is able to be out again.

The contractors have about finished the new school house at this place.

Mrs. Georgiana Hawkins is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. S. Sargent.

The Irish potato crop, in consequence of the dry season, will be rather light.

Mr. J. W. Daniel is lying quite sick at his home, Mr. Jos. Parent's, near this place.

Several ladies and gentlemen, of this vicinity, attended the fair at Shelbyville last week.

Mr. Thos. Freeman, who has been quite sick for some weeks, still remains in a precarious condition.

That business boom we predicted for our vicinity some time since has arrived.

The wheat has about all been threshed out. The yield is about one third of a crop.

A protracted meeting, conducted by Eld. Homer Wilson, is in progress at the Bridgeport Christian Church.

Billy Pierce has in course of erection a house which he proposes to occupy as soon as completed.

Miss Bettie McWilliams has returned home from a visit to friends in Shelby county.

Miss Josie Robinson, of Lagrange, is spending some time in this section, the guest of Miss Bettie Wilson.

Rev. B. F. Huggins will preach at Franklin Church next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m., and on Sunday at 11 a. m., Sept. 12 and 13.

Mrs. Clara Garnett, son and daughter, of Owen county, are visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thos. Farmer, in the Farmdale vicinity.

Charlie Jenkins and wife were at Bagdad last Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. D. D. Vannatta and family.

Mr. F. M. Scofield, who was disabled for several days recently by a strain of his back, is able to be out again.

Miss Annie Crockett, of Louisville, has returned home from a visit to relatives in this vicinity, accompanied by her cousin, Daisy Parent.

Born—August 25, 1885, to Oscar Roberts and wife, a son. Also August 29, 1885, to Walter Dugan and wife a son—Horatio Granville.

In order that our district schools may become more efficient, we vote to prohibit country children from attending city schools.

From what we can learn the chances for Mr. C. Wm. Taylor for jailer of Franklin county are about as flattering as any. Of course each candidate thinks his prospect the brightest.

Revs. E. A. W. Roberts and Tyler E. Utterback will each preach at Red Ridge school house to-morrow, the former at 11 o'clock a. m., and the latter at 3 o'clock p. m. All are invited to attend.

Next Saturday, September 12, will be the most important meeting of any yet held by the teachers of this county, as business, never before mentioned, except privately, will be presented for action at that time. Let us all be on hand at 9 o'clock sharp and help to move the ball. Trustees especially invited to be present.

Parents should be very careful in regard to the influence they set before their children and the company they allow them to keep. Not unreasonably it is the case that our ears are assailed by foul odors emanating from the lips of little boys, and all because of a lack of the proper care of fathers and mothers in this matter. If parents would be more careful about this matter, the money now expended for the erection of jails, almshouses, penitentiaries and gallows, might be used in the rearing of structures for the propagation of education and religion in the earth.

A day of final reckoning will surely come. Sympathy, when offered in season, is no doubt an excellent thing, but when too late is but mockery.

The vivacious and fascinating Miss Willie Mahey, of Woodford, who has been visiting Miss Pauline Frazier, has returned home.

Spent Jennie Y. Hodges, of Elkhorn, spent several days here this week, visiting the family of Mr. Robert Triplett.

Capt. Caghey Hawkins, the hermit of Murray's orchard, assisted by Dr. Murray, have been spending the summer with Mrs. Ann M. Frazier and other friends, left for home Wednesday.

Col. J. N. Crutcher, the last of the Franklin Volunteers, is still on duty here. He says that he was an offensive partisan and that he "was born a Democrat." That makes no difference, sonny, you'll have to soon tumble to the music—"to the victors belong the spoils." "We are waiting and watching for you."

Attention, Albert G. Bacon Post.

There will be a special meeting of the Post Monday evening, Sept. 7th. A full attendance is requested.
